

Women's Distance Festival 5K - Sept. 18

This downtown-Portland race is a showdown for the women racers of Maine. Several of the very top women--Joan Samuelson (who holds the record) and Edie Dubord and Christine Snow-Reaser, for example--were not in attendance, but the race was exciting anyway. Held on a beautiful morning, it seemed a thrilling event even for the back-of-the-pack runners (and it was advertised as a noncompetitive walk, too).
